

The Hans India - DTI - 02/06/2015

Uppal and SR Nagar metro stations illuminated

A side view of the majestic Salarjung Museum building, the minarets of Toli Masjid, a pencil sketch of the historic Charminar, photographs of eminent personalities who fought for Telangana and cultural motifs that depict the region are all brought out in the form of posters and are already on the metro pillars in the city. In the evening the Uppal and SR Nagar stations would be illuminated to mark the TRS formation Day fete.

One thousand posters at strategic locations across the metro corridors have come up. N V S Reddy, MD, Hyderabad Metro Rail (HMR) says, "These posters are a reminder of the glorious history and culture of Telangana. Any passerby or visitor to the city could have a glimpse of these posters and know the richness of the region.

A huge poster of the Telangana Martyrs Memorial is on display at the Parade Grounds in Secunderabad from where the national flag would be hoisted. Reddy informed that those who cannot make it to the Telangana Martyrs Memorial at Assembly can pay their tributes at the Parade Grounds.

HMR has put up Telangana Amaraveerula Nivaali at Parade Grounds